

DECEMBER 2020 Issue

This month, we at BSA commit to achieving our aim of inspiring others to succeed! Our objective is to recognize opportunities to inspire our children to learn and achieve positively great things. From choosing healthy lifestyles to completing schoolwork, we want to be recognized as achievers!

THIS MONTH'S THEMES

CHEWS – Winter Holiday Celebration Foods

SCHOOLWORK COACHING – Focus on Accuracy! Remote Online Learning.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT – Math is Fun!

RFPT – Sports Leadership, Physical Abilities and Limitations

FINE ART SPECIAL PROJECT – Making Winter Holiday Art

REFLECTION – Social and Emotional Development!

Thank You!

Thank you for allowing us to serve you and your children! We appreciate and enjoy your partnership in helping us help your children achieve positive success for schooling, socializing, and productivity in life! Please do not hesitate to let us know how we can assist you and your children to be positively successful.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Tuesday, December 1: Reading & Math Assessments

BSA Youth Development Coach Erica Farr Holloway will contact each family to schedule reading and math assessments. These assessments are to help us measure youth achievement and set goals for learning. The assessments will be performed via Zoom® or upon request in person as scheduled.

December 21 – 24 and 29 - 30, 9 am – 3 pm: Zoom® Social Time

Join BSA Coaches online via Zoom® to play games, chat, and do recreational activities!

See www.bspc.org/bsa for link to join.

HOME SAFETY TIPS:

Most home fires begin in the kitchen. The best way to prevent a kitchen fire is to stay near the stove whenever you are cooking something – especially when frying. Keep your stove and oven clean. Move anything that can burn at least 3 feet away from the heat.
